ORAL ORDER

(Passed on 2nd December, 2005)

This writ petition filed under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India is directed against the order made by the learned Trial Judge under Order 7 Rule 14 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner, I do not find any material irregularity or failure of justice. Be that as it may, the ground urged before the Court could be a ground to attack the final decree that may be passed by the learned Trial Judge in the event of the decree going against the petitioner herein, as provided under Section 105 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The writ petition is therefore dismissed, however, with no costs.
